CELEBRATES THE TRADITIONS OF INDIAN & PAKISTANI CULTURE

To celebrate the Indian and Pakistani cultures, Four Seasons Westlake Village partnered with Nikki Khan of Exquisite Events to welcome the community and announce the hotel's exclusive services.

"We are one of the only five-star properties that caters to Indian and Pakistani weddings," said Aimee Gallagher, Catering Manager for Four Seasons.

The hotel created an ambiance rich with traditional elements. Upon entering, guests were greeted by Indian hostesses distributing floral wristlets as they passed into the reception area decorated with colorful pergolas and regional low furniture. They then mingled, nibbling butler-passed traditional hors d'oeuvres, all while Sitar and Tabla music played.

Following the cocktail hour, the ballroom doors swung open to reveal a sumptuous decant décor with lavish floral detail and plush linens. The tables were draped in flowers, as coordinating centerpieces and lanterns completed the tablescape.

Perhaps the highlight of the evening was the traditional menu.

"We allow clients to bring in preferred outside caterers, giving them the flexibility to tailor their menu to fit the regional cuisine of their choice," said Gallagher.
